Purpose of Job:

To be involved in providing the support needed to assist in preparing young people for independent living in accordance with the aims and objectives of the Project and the ethos and values of Oasis Aquila Housing.

Organisation Context:

Oasis Aquila Housing (OAH) is a Christian response to homelessness and disadvantage providing housing, support and other specialised services. The support provided aims to develop life skills that will enable people to live successful independent lives.

Oasis Aquila Housing is part of the Oasis group of charities. The group includes national charities dedicated to education, housing, and campaigning against human trafficking and we work to a common vision of creating communities in which everyone can thrive and reach their God-given potential.

We welcome applicants from all faiths or none, but it is important that all employees understand and sympathise with the Christian vision, ethos and culture of the organisation.

However, it will be an occupational requirement that a practising Christian is needed for some specified roles. This will be highlighted in the qualifications section of the job description and will be clearly stated in the job advert.

Oasis Aquila Housing is a growing charity, with its central office in Gateshead, Tyne and Wear.

The Foyer

The Oasis Aquila Foyer opened in 2000, and is funded by Croydon Council as part of a Youth Homelessness Pathway which is run in partnership with local organisation CAYSH. The Foyer consists of 8 properties; a hub, based in Thornton Heath, which accommodates 18 service users and provides additional facilities such as an IT Suite and lounge. 7 shared houses located across Croydon accommodate 29 service users and form our dispersed Foyer; together the hub and dispersed accommodation forms Stage 2 of the Pathway.

Within Stage 2 young people aged 16-25 with medium needs are supported through Support Planning, Needs and Risk Assessment processes, and Life and Employability Skills Programmes which all focus on the development of essential skills to support young people as they transition to increased independence, within timeframes appropriate to their needs.

Support Workers are responsible for the provision of support and management of incidents between the hours of 8.45am-9pm, at both the Foyer hub and dispersed properties. Bank staff members will be advised by Managers and Support Workers which sites they will be required to work at and visit during each shift.

A Concierge service provides static on site concierge presence at the Foyer hub throughout the night from 4.45pm-9am. Roving concierge attend the dispersed properties 2-3 times each night, as requested by Foyer Management.

Areas of responsibility and specific duties:

(Strategy/Planning/Organising)

1. To work flexibly, in order to meet the needs of the service users, project and Oasis Aquila Housing.
2. To undertake various administrative tasks, usually via the computer, as required for the running of the project including but not limited to recording meeting attendance, typing meeting minutes, accurately and fully recording all interactions with service users, reporting, emailing comprehensive handover notes, providing clear messages to staff members from service users and external agencies.
3. To be responsible for ensuring the health, safety and security of all service users and visitors to the project; dealing with incidents that may occur, especially when lone working, in accordance with Oasis Aquila Housing policies and on-call procedures.

Analytical/Creative thinking/Problem Solving

1. To clearly and accurately record actions taken and activities service users have participated in e.g. daily/weekly/monthly checks, recording which service users you have seen, participation in and attendance at meetings/events which have taken place during your shift.

2. To ensure safeguarding policies and procedures are adhered to in your practices; concerns are reported to on call Managers using the appropriate report templates, and follow up actions are taken appropriately, in a timely manner, as directed by Managers.
3. To ensure in all interactions with service users, visitors, contractors, partners that you abide by the Oasis Aquila Housing Code of Conduct, Policies and Procedures; having clear appropriate and professional boundaries in place at all times.
4. To abide by Lone Working policies and procedures in order to ensure your personal safety, the safety of service users and visitors to the project, and the properties themselves; to make 'in the moment' assessments of risk, take appropriate actions, follow all procedures, use all project systems and ensure clear reporting.
5. To follow up maintenance related concerns with on call Managers, partner agencies and maintenance contractors as appropriate, following the project procedures that are in place.
6. To use initiative in ensuring smooth and effective running of the office and project, including following up with SMART IT when IT related problems are reported or observed.

People Management

1. To take responsibility for any volunteers who are on site; provide to-do lists as needed, and undertake any necessary handover, including gaining comprehensive information related to interactions volunteers have had with service users and taking responsibility for recording interactions on your handover notes to permanent staff members.
2. To oversee contractors who are on site; ensuring they are not left unsupervised in service user rooms, taking responsibility for ensuring interactions with service users are safe and appropriate.

People Management for young people

1. To provide holistic (mental, physical, emotional and spiritual) support to service users; providing information, advice and guidance and seeking to 'open the of service users.
2. To research opportunities for service users as needs arise e.g. opportunities related to education, employment, personal development, health, therapy; providing information to Support Workers and Managers who will follow up with making referrals as needed.
3. To provide on-going support, advice and guidance to ex-residents as and when needed.
4. To be prepared to work from all 8 Foyer properties within the Stage 2 service; attending as and when required, to provide support to service users after incidents, to attend in response to service user needs and requests.
5. Dependent upon your level of experience and competency in the role, you may be asked by the Operational Manager to provide one to one support to service users for a stated period of time; if this is the case you will provide support to named service users via Key Work sessions, Support Planning and completion of Risk

Assessments while permanent staff members are away from the project e.g. for over 2 weeks leave.

Responsibility for resources

1. To be involved in maintaining buildings to the highest standard. Assisting in recording and monitoring Health and Safety issues, fire and security concerns and carrying out day to day assessment of risk.
2. To be responsible for professionally handling Project Finances as and when needed; usually in the form of Petty Cash, providing accurate change, receipts and clearly recording any expenditure.
3. To ensure the confidentiality of personal data held in your care as specified in the Data Protection Act 1998 and Oasis Aquila Housing policies and procedures.

Physical and Building Related Activities

1. To undertake practical tasks required to maintain the building to a high standard and ensure rooms are prepared for new service users; e.g. cleaning and clearing belongings from rooms, moving furniture.
2. To regularly undertake practical tasks during any given shift, including daily, weekly and monthly checks, which include cleaning responsibilities.

General Duties

- To support and embody the ethos and values of Oasis Aquila Housing.
- To undertake appropriate training for the role, as required by the Operational Manager.
- To attend supervision/de-brief meetings with the Foyer Operational Manager / Engagement Co-ordinator where necessary/requested by either party.
- To carry out any appropriate duties, in line with the purpose of the job, as may be reasonably required by your line manager.

Guidance on Completing an Application Form

All applicants are required to complete the standard Application Form. CVs are not accepted. The information you give us in your Application Form is the only information that we will use to decide whether or not we short list you for an interview.

Equal Opportunities Monitoring

Please complete the Equal Opportunities Monitoring form included as part of the Application Form. This helps us to measure the effectiveness of our Equal Opportunities Policy. Members of the shortlisting and interview panel will not see the monitoring forms.

Check the Job Description/Person Specification as to whether there is an Occupational Requirement

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

You must give details of any convictions, cautions, reprimands, or warnings you may have, both spent and unspent.

Advice Notes

Think carefully about the post you are applying for, what the post involves and whether you can match this in terms of your experience, knowledge, skills and abilities.

- Fill in all parts of the Application Form, if some parts do not apply then write N/A (not applicable).
- Please type the Application Form but, if you are unable to do so, please complete in black ink and ensure that your writing is clear and legible.
- List any qualifications and training as well as any relevant experience in your past and present jobs.
- The Supporting Statement is an important part of the Application Form where you can tell us about your knowledge, skills, abilities and experience which you can bring to the job.
- Sign the Application Form if you are submitting by post. Tick the box on page 9 if you are submitting by email.
- If you are successfully short listed, we will aim to contact you at least 5 days before the day of the interview, although this may not always be possible.

Summary of Terms and Conditions of Employment

Please note that the purpose of this document is to only provide an outline of the main terms and conditions of employment. This document does not form part of any resultant contract of employment.

Appointment

Your appointment is subject to:

1. An enhanced DBS clearance (depending on the role)
2. At least two satisfactory references
3. Evidence that you are legally entitled to work in the UK (which will be checked at interview)

Hours of Work

Full time equivalent hours are:

Central Office	37 hours over 5 days
Residential Projects	Average 40 hours per week worked over a 4 week rota (which includes evenings, weekends and bank holidays - refer to the relevant Job Description) – and for which 2 increments are paid
Community Projects	37 hours over 5 days
Casual/Bank Staff	'as and when needed'

Annual Holiday Leave

The annual leave year runs from 1st September. Entitlement is the equivalent of 25 days plus statutory holidays per annum, increasing to 30 days after 2 years full service, pro rata for part time staff.

Part time workers will have their holidays calculated as follows: 25 days (or 30 days) divided by 37 multiplied by the agreed hours of work. Public/Bank Holidays are also calculated on a pro rata basis.

For casual staff holiday entitlement is 5 weeks based on average salary paid.

The holiday year runs 1 April to 31 March. Holiday entitlement is 5.6 weeks per annum based on average salary paid over the previous 12 weeks worked.

Salary

Salary is paid monthly by BACS transfer into a Bank or Building Society account specified by you normally on the 26th of each month.

Probation

All new employees are required to complete a probationary period which is specified in your Offer of Employment letter. On successful completion of your probationary period you will be confirmed in post. During the probationary period you will have regular reviews of your performance.

Pension

Oasis Aquila Housing operates a contributory group personal pension plan and in accordance with the Pension Act 2008, if eligible, you will be automatically enrolled into the Oasis Trust pension scheme. Currently all staff in our pension scheme are required to contribute a minimum of 2% of their salary. The employer contribution is currently set at a contribution of 7%. Pension contributions will be in line with pension reform legislation and full details will be provided to you by the Finance Dept.

Life Assurance

Oasis Aquila Housing life assurance policy, through Omnilife, is open to all staff who earn in excess of £6000 per annum. If you are on a contract with variable hours below this level we will discuss with you in person if you are eligible to join the scheme. This scheme provides a 'death in service' benefit to any nominated beneficiaries in the event that you die whilst in our employment.

Sickness

If, through sickness or injury, you are incapable of performing any of the work you are employed to do, the Employer will pay you statutory sick pay ("SSP") in accordance with its legal obligations. For SSP purposes your qualifying days will be your normal working days.

Notice period

After the expiry of the probationary period, the period of written notice to be given by either party to terminate your employment is stipulated in your Contract of Employment and will be at least 4 weeks.
